

1 · the data as it arrives

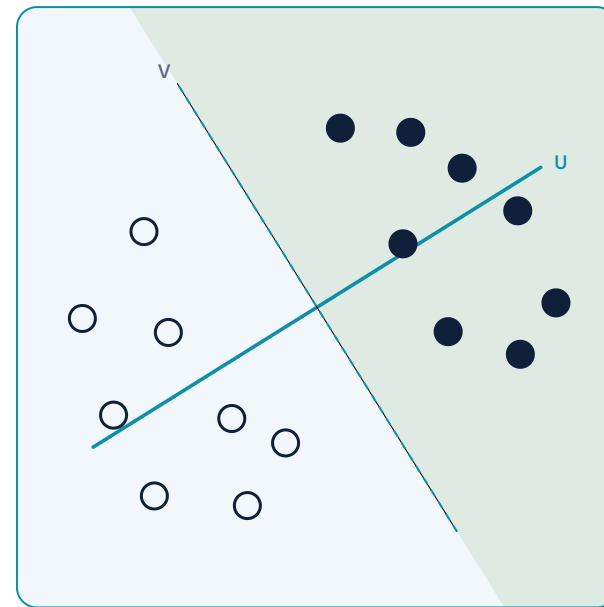

no rule in x and y is short

2 · the axes moved

not one point moved — only the axes did

3 · the rule that follows

the filled points are those with $u > 0$

The points are at the same pixel in all three panels. No model got smarter — the data got written down better.